U.S. NAVY ACTS TO SPEED UP SHIPBUILDING

Compton To Boost Civilian Workers Staff By 15,000 In 3 Months

66 WARSHIPS SET
FOR CONSTRUCTION

Government Pledges Full Credit Backing To American Industry

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 21.—All Navy establishments were ordered today by Lewis Compton, acting secretary, to speed up defense preparations by working additional shifts and by increasing civilian shipbuilding forces by at least 15-000 within three months.

The proposed increase of 15,000 in shipbuilding forces, the Navy said, would be distributed between the Persimouth, New York City, Mare
Island, Philadelphia, Boston, Charleston, Norfolk and Puget Sound
navy yards.

There are 66 warships under construction or projected, including 8 battleships.

Summons Navy Heads

President Roosevelt, concentrating on the Navy's portion of his defense program, summoned chairman of the senate and house naval committees and ranking Navy admirals
to a White House conference.

On Capitol Hill the house naval committee tentatively approved legislation which would permit the Navy to expel civil employees suspected of subversive activities.

The amendment would permit, in the interest of defense, the discharge of any employee—civil service law not withstanding. Informed sources said the sole purpose was to weed out so-called un-American elements.

The government pledged full credit backing today to American industry enlisting in the national defense drive, while administration leaders tackled the job of financing
the huge preparedness program.

Await "Go Ahead" Signal

Without slackening speed, Congress forged ahead with legislation that would give the industrial machine the "go-ahead" to turn dollars into tanks, warplanes and fighting ships.

The senate called up for debate
the unprecedented peace-time Army bill of $1,820,841,000, and the general expectation was that it would be on President Roosevelt's desk by the weekend. In the house, committees were hard at work on both Army and Navy expansion.

Jose Jones, Federal loan administrator, called on the country's banks to furnish "the fullest cooperation," and said that the RFC stood ready either to take up 75 per cent of loans secured in connection with the defense program, or

PLAN ASSEMBLY AT JUNIOR HIGH

Outstanding Students To Be Recognized On
May 31

BY JANE TINSLEY

The close of another successful
Junior High school year will be marked by a series of interesting activities, the first of which will be the Association party on Thursday, May 23, in the high school gymnasium and auditorium, beginning at 3:45 p. m.

First on the program of entertainment for the party will be Dr.
Osgood, lecturer and traveler, who will give an interesting talk on Chinese customs and ways of living.
The students will then adjourn to the gymnasium for dancing and games until 6 p. m. The Salem High School Dance band will furnish the music for the dancing.

Last Assembly May 31

The eighth grade's last assembly, which is one of the highlights of the year, will be held on Friday, May 31. At this time various awards will be presented to the outstanding pupils in scholastic and athletic fields. Patrol boys' certificates will be presented to those boys who have done their job especially well during the past year. Awards in the form of plaques will be given to the home
rooms that win the baseball tournament and the track meets.

The English award will be presented to the pupil of the Junior High school who makes the most pronounced progress in the use of correct and effective English during his course in two years he at-

War machines are rumbling through Europe, leaving in their wake the bodies of dead and injured, making thousands homeless,
destitute, hungry.

Families are torn apart, children left to suffer. At this particular time, no one cares—no one except the humanitarian people of the United States who, through the Red Cross, are raising money to provide the relief so sorely needed.

Salem's share of the national quota is $2,000. Yesterday, the first day of the campaign here, only $150 was raised, a very small part of the total.

Contributions are entirely voluntary. They may be left at the First and Farmers National banks and at the postoffice. These, and mail direct to the Red Cross here,
are the only means of giving.

It's not a question of merely meeting a quota. It's the vital matter of helping human beings who are deeply in trouble. Red Cross officials are confident Salem people will do both.

Women taking their turns at Red Cross desks in the banks and postoffice include Mrs. J. R. Stratton, Mrs. O. C. Juergens, Mrs. E. S.
Lawson, Mrs. Willis R. Hole, Misses
Ellis and Zillah Stamp, Mrs. G. W.
Bunn, Mrs. A. H. Vaughan, Mrs. L.
E. Beery, Miss Alice Berger, Mrs.
William Merry, Mrs. J. W. Asty,
Mrs. James Wilson, Mrs. B. L. Plick,
Mrs. R. E. Smucker, Mrs. Donald
Carey, Mrs. Russell C. Gibbs, Mrs.
Hannah Maule, Mrs. Joseph Bloomberg and Miss Bessie Walker.

EVENTS LISTED BY HI-TRI CLUB

Next Year's Officers To Be Installed At Dinner Tomorrow

BY MARGARET STEWART

Concluding an eventful year as one of the leading student organizations of Salem High school, the Hi-Tri club is planning several social meetings to be held soon. A banquet at the Knotty Pine room of the Lape hotel is scheduled for tomorrow evening, when next year's officers will be formally installed.
The Hi-Tri Mother's tea, an annual event, will be held Thursday afternoon after an address by Rev.
Gerould Goldner of Warren, who will speak to the Hi-Tri members and their mothers, as well as the Hi-Y club, a senior boys' organization.

The Hi-Tri club, consisting of about 60 upperclass girls with a scholastic average of B or above, participates in a varied program of social activities, supplementing the regular bi-weekly meetings, planned
by club committees.

Promote Clean Living

Although many of the club's activities are planned merely for the enjoyment of the members, the main object of the organization, as expressed in the Hi-Tri creed, is to promote clean living and high ideals among its members, and to do its part to improve the school and the community.

As a contribution to the extracurricular program of the school,
the club sponsors frequent informal dances in the gym. One of the annual projects carried out by the Hi-Tri is the presentation of the Christmas school assembly program.
Supervising the members in their various club projects, Miss Marye Louise Miller acts as faculty advisor. Under her supervision the activities of the club are planned and executed by special committees and an executive committee composed of the officers of the club.

WPA Groups Meet

LISBON May 21.—More than 200 attended the dinner and open house program of the WPA housekeeping and sewing projects last night in the Presbyterian church.

Similar affairs were held at Columbiana, East Palestine and Wells-ville.

Modern Laboratory Boosts Interest In "Home Ec" Here

By ESTHER FOWLER

The "rock-bound" biscuits fabled for many years in bride lore will be a thing of the past for Salem home economics students because of the local lassies who have one of the best equipped laboratories in this section of the state.

And the chap who's fortunate enough eventually to persuade one of these "home ec" graduates to say the right word will be assured of a "happily-ever-after" existence, if it's true, as they say, that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

Citizens of Salem may well be proud of the thoroughly modern equipment which they have made available to students. The laboratory, which was completed just a few weeks ago, is now one of the most modern High school laboratories in this section of the country, exceeding in appointments and

CADIZ, May 21.—Defeated for the nomination for state repre-

Cadiz precincts. He lost the nom-editor. The recount will be made Friday, election board officials said.

GUNS' RUMBLING IS HEARD ALONG BRITISH COAST

Grim War On Continent Brought Nearer To English People

HOME DEFENSES
ARE STRESSED

Possibility Of Invasion Of Britain Called Feasible

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, May 21.—Heavy rumbling like distant thunder was heard tonight in the east coast towns of Great Yarmouth and Gorleston, stirring speculation
among residents that it was gunfire on the continent.

Doors were shaken and crockery
rattled on the shelves in seashore homes.

Old-timers recalled they often heard continental artillery fire in the World war.

Stress Home Defense

LONDON, May 21.—British home
defenses were pressed at "war
speed" today as the German lightning drive toward France's north coast brought steadily nearer the double threat of air attack and actual Nazi invasion.

"Invasion of Britain is perfectly feasible," declared the Daily Express, published by Lord Beaverbrook, minister of aircraft production. "But it can't be successful if we are prepared."

War Secretary Anthony Eden
told the house of commons that response to the call for local defense volunteers had been "satisfactory."

Prime Minister Churchill sat between his predecessor, Neville Chamberlain, now lord president of the council, and Eden at the first session of commons attended by his new ministers.

A British military spokesman declared that "certainly" no large German columns had reached Amiens, although he acknowledged that "a few isolated tanks" may

Students Serving As Editors And Reporters Today

By ROBERT BALLANTINE

As an annual project of the Salem High school journalism class, a group of advanced students from the class are given actual experience in the production of a newspaper by serving as staff members of The Salem News.

Seven journalism class students assisted in the editorial and re-portorial work in connection with the publishing of today's paper.

The group included Allen Fehr,
Robert Ballantine, Robert Dixon,
Sara Wanner, Es her Fowler, Jane Tinsley, and Margaret Stewart.

H. L. Lehman
as sports reporter; Miss Wanner as social reporter; Misses Stewart, Tinsley and Fowler as reporters on general assignment.

The journalism class at the High school is instructed by H. C.
Lehman.

Lehman is very active in journalism throughout the northern part of the state. He serves as president of the Ohio County Journalism Association.

GREINER RITES AT 3 WEDNESDAY

Rev. R. D. Walter To Conduct Service At Home, S. Lincoln Ave.

Rev. R. D. Walter, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will conduct funeral service at 3 p. m. Wednesday at the home on S. Lincoln ave., for Hiram A. Greiner, 65, retired banker and industrialist, who died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home. Burial will be in Hope cemetery.

The son of Joseph O. and Adella
Campbell Greiner, he was born Aug. 14, 1875, in Salem. He attended public school here; graduating in 1899 from the New York Military academy.

Returning to Salem, he was associated with the Greiner and Son bank, which was later changed to the Citizens Savings and Trust Co.
In 1911 Mr. Greiner became secretary-treasurer of the Buckeye Engine Co., serving later as receiver
for the firm.

He was secretary-treasurer for E.
S. Griffiths of Cleveland, who operated the Buckeye Engine company until the firm was sold to the E. W. Bliss company in 1921, when he retired.

He was married to Helen Boone of this city, Sept. 9, 1903. He was a member of the Masonic and Elks lodges in Salem. In recent years he had been actively interested in flowers, his garden in the rear of his home being regarded as one of the most beautiful in the city.

sons, Hiram of Salem and Charles
of Toledo; one granddaughter, Eva;
and one sister, Miss Helen Greiner
of Hiram.

Bobby Allen, Bobby Brown Join Ranks of Mibs Champs

By ROBERT DIXON

The names of Bobby Allen and Bobby Brown were added to the list of school champions in the Salem News' fourth annual marble tournament today following com-

McKinley school, while Brown, 11-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brown, of 247 E. Fifth st., finished on top in the finals of Fourth Street school.

Eight room champions competed in the McKinley mibs finals which produced a two-way tie between Allen and Byron Owens of the sixth grade. Allen, a fourth grader, and Owens tied for honors in round robin competition against other room champions with six wins and one defeat apiece.

French Admit German War Plans Puzzle

PARIS, May 21.—Small detachments of German motorcycle troops have penetrated in the outskirts of the Abbeville region, near the English channel, a French spokesman admitted tonight.

LONDON, May 21.—Intense anti-aircraft fire off the southeast coast of England was heard twice this afternoon, mingled with the drone of airplane engines high overhead.
Seacoast residents described the firing as so intense that "everything shook and trembled."

EIFFEL TOWER SEEN BY NAZIS

Germans More Concerned About England, Although Near Paris

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
Associated Press Writer

WITH THE GERMAN WEST-ERN ARMIES, May 21.—The famous Eiffel tower of Paris was clearly visible to the advance guards of Adolf Hitler's forward-dashing army this morning but it was by no means certain that the Fuehrer would endeavor to capture the French capital in a hurry.

He seemed more concerned with routing Belgian, French and English troops headed for the French coast of the English channel.

No less a man than general Wal-ther Von Reichenau, commander of the eighth army, was selected to perform this task.

Yet even Von Reichenau was not too busy to offer a welcome to American correspondents visiting the German western armies as Hitler's personal guests.

Von Reichenau is credited with knowing every detail of Germany's famous pincer tactics. He covered

Choric Speaking To Be Introduced At Annual Party

By SARA WANNER

Choric speaking, a new project in Salem High school, is to make its debut at the annual Junior-Senior prom, May 31. At that time, 20 members of the Salem chapter of the National Thespians will present Vachel Lindsay's most famous poem,
"The Congo."

"The Congo" is an emotional study of the African race and is especially adapted to heavy male voices. The selection is divided into three parts. Part one is entitled, "Their Brutal Savagery";
part two, "Their Irresponsible High Spirits"; and three, "The Hope of Their Religion."

Throughout the poem there is an undertone of the rhythmic beat of tom-toms and an undertone of their superstitions and fears. Interwoven is the story of their race.

Miss Viola Bodo, who is directing the project, states that the desired effect to be produced in all choric speaking is that of wind being blown over harp strings. Although a chorus of possibly 400 voices is better suited to "The Congo", the desired effect is still being produced with the smaller groups.

Cleveland Man, Wife Injured In Accident

Russell T. Herrick, 49, of 1615 Rosewood drive, Lakewood, was critically injured and his wife, Helen, 51, less seriously hurt when their automobile left Route 14, five tenths of a mile south of Deerfield, at 7:30 p. m. Monday and crashed into a pole.

The car overturned at least three times before striking the pole. State Patrolman P. D. Barnes said.

Herrick, who is associate editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, suffered a possible fractured skull, bruises and abrasions and was removed to the Alliance City hospital.
His condition is reported as just fair.

Mrs. Herrick received bruises and abrasions of the right shoulder and was treated at the hospital.

The Herricks were enroute to Washington, D. C. for a vacation.
The state patrolman said Herrick,
who was driving, apparently failed to notice the sharp curve at the point of the accident until too late and the machine left the road.

WHY ISOLATION HAS BEEN ABANDONED

Main trouble with isolation as an academic principle in the United States was the philosophy which nourished it. It must be called an academic principle at this stage in history, because hindsight shows clearly it never was anything more than a hopeful theory.

It was nourished on the one hand by a too optimistic outlook on the world abroad and on the other hand by a too pessimistic outlook on the world at home. Simply stated, it was belief that if the United States wasn't equipped to interfere with Europe, it wouldn't be interfered with by Europe. Significantly, it never was taken seriously in connection with affairs in the Pacific area and, after intervention in Europe during the World war, was expounded for the Atlantic area only as a reaction from the disillusionment of the post-war years.

In its modern form, isolation, as preached by its vocal followers, depended entirely on two suppositions, both now destroyed. The first was that a balance of power in Europe would be maintained by a coalition of governments whom the United States had no cause to fear. Confidence in this supposition began to deteriorate when Hitler's Germany proved at Munich it was as formidable as it claimed to be and when it proved by invading Poland in conjunction with Russia that it also was as ruthless as its critics had warned it would be if it ever became formidable.

But the second supposition, that Great Britain, France and their allies would be able to confine war to Europe, thus guaranteeing the isolation of the United States, still continued in active use. Through the winter, when the war seemed to be in stalemate on the western front, the supposition seemed valid. It was not until Germany's easy conquest of Poland and its invasion of the low countries, simultaneously exposing the northern flank of France and all of Great Britain to the Hitler war machine that the isolationists saw how untenable their position had become.

At that instant, destruction of the Allies and overthrow of the European balance of power became an imminent possibility, clearly recognizable by even the novice in European observation. European governments which Americans had no cause to fear because they were disciples of non-violence were being crushed by a government that Americans had ample cause to fear. Not only was it violent but they had so far abandoned the principle of isolation as to incur its enmity while depending on someone else to hold that enmity at a safe distance.

Has this change of attitude, this abrupt realization that the United States is not safe merely because it has no designs on the safety of other nations, brought the country closer to war? It has not.

The events which are bringing the United States closer to war lie entirely beyond this country's control. They are being described hour by hour in the news of the momentous battle in France, of Germany's preparations to send an air armada against Great Britain, of troop movements in the Balkans, of the conquest of Belgium. Undoubtedly, they are bringing America closer to war. A victorious Germany would be in position to dominate the world, and the United States and the American hemisphere most certainly would be affected.

At the same time, this country is undertaking to arm itself so formidably that a victorious Germany would not dare to strike in the American hemisphere. To that extent, the United States is trying to move further from the possibility of war. It is making isolation mean something with insulation, the great oversight of the isolationists who hoped good intentions would be enough.

THE LESSONS OF WAR

Military science, the subject of the hour, seems teachable only in an atmosphere of blood and violence. Millions of laymen, doomed to take an enforced course in it every so often, never have been able to understand why it should be so. Why, they wonder, cannot some of the ghastliest lessons be learned beforehand, thereby averting slaughter?

Specially, they do not understand why there exists a lethargy amounting almost to reaction which prevents military leaders from profiting by their own imagination. In 1914, despite advance knowledge of the implements with which Germany was prepared to bid for domination, tardy admission of their effectuality by the Allies almost gave the Kaiser's war machine victory by default.

In 1940, despite similar warnings that Germany was preparing to renew its bid with an arsenal of new weapons—warnings repeated with monotonous regularity for the last half decade—the Allies again are fighting at a near-fatal disadvantage. It is hard to see why Germany should have had twice in one generation a preponderance of military leaders whose terrible visions of the future were regarded lightly by their intended opponents. And if any American are inclined to believe only the British and French lack foresight he should remember what happened to his own Gen. Mitchell when he tried to tell the navy department that bombing planes had destroyed the classic concept of battleship power.

Fortunately, this country's militarists can watch the new weapons of the new war in action objectively. An intensified program of national defense is getting under way without delay. It will be spurred by realization that if Great Britain and France similarly had appreciated the striking power of Hitlerism and prepared to resist it in time, the war probably wouldn't have started.

Part of the trouble lies in the regrettable tendency of democracies to demand nothing but reassurance from public leaders, then to blame them for not screaming "Wolf" when the wolf finally appears. There is slight inducement to be an alarmist when alarmism pays no premium. That does not explain why French and British militarists should have been surprised twice in the same lifetime by the same wolf.

THE STARS SAY:

For Wednesday, May 22

A DAY OF progress and opportunity for much surprising and productive work is read from the prevailing mutual aspects. This may operate in business as well as in all pertaining to writing, publishing, publicity and promotional enterprises. Satisfactory new contracts are in sight, with promotion and the friendly support of those in prestige and power. Cultivate these and work with groups of exalted ambitions. March definitely upon high goals.

Those whose birthday it is are assured of a year of definite opportunity for growth and expansion; especially in all sorts of business or employment in which sharp mentality and insight as well as literary ability are required. Writing, publishing, promotions, should attract the generous support of capital or other solid endorsement of those in standing. Seek these, but reach for high objectives, in which social welfare or public good are stressed. Propitious for renewing contracts and at enhanced profit and personal popularity.

A child born on this day may have exceptional talent in a professional line, legal, literary or financial, with much prospect of progress and preferment at the hands of those in place and power. Its aims should be advanced and progressive.

A vacationer, home from Florida, who sprained a thumb testing a tourist cabin mattress, expects to have it back in shape for the first cantaloupes.

It might be more in keeping with the international situation to have this year's 500-mile Speedway race paced by a tank.

If the Nazis should invade England, they might feel right at home in the village of Hades.

Roughage A Healthy Ally, According To Physician

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

What is meant by roughage in the diet and what is its function? THE VEGETABLES and fruits which should make up over half the bulk of a well balanced diet contain a substance which may be called plant fiber, roughage or cellulose. This is not affected nor dissolved by the digestive fluids, so that after the digestion and absorption of other constituents it remains as a residue in the digestive tract to be excreted. But it is a very valuable constituent of the food. During digestion the food is propelled along the intestines by the rhythmic contraction of the intestinal muscles, and the undigested vegetable fibers, by giving bulk to the food, stimulate these contractions. The mass of vegetable fiber also acts as a mop and incorporates into its mass large numbers of bacteria, alive or dead.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Ordinary absorbent cotton is an example of the cellular part of a plant. It is practically pure cellulose and the fibrous parts of edible vegetables, although interspersed with other substances, are chemically similar to cotton. If you rub a wad of wet cotton over a dirty window pane you get a good idea of what roughage does to contents of the intestine.

The percentage of cellulose in plants differs from about 1 to 3 per cent. Spinach contains 1.1 per cent, celery 0.9 per cent, squash 1.3 per cent, lettuce 0.9 per cent, oranges 1.5 per cent, apples 1.2 per cent, bananas 1 per cent, and whole wheat 2.6 per cent.

This amount is obviously quite small, and yet such vegetables and fruits act very satisfactorily. When the cellulose part of foods is concentrated and given in bulk for laxative purposes—as in the form of agar, psyllium seed, bran and cellulose—they may or may not have such favorable results. In fact, in some individuals they may cause irritation which does more harm than good.

Does overwork produce nervous exhaustion?

LOOKING OVER hundreds of charts of experiments on fatigue and formulae and graphs of all kinds of works the conclusion is inevitable—mental work does not cause brain lag.

The great accomplishments in the world do not know what fatigue is. "To what do better men owe their escape from fatigue?" wrote William James. "Men the world over possess amounts of resources which only the very exceptional push to their extremes of use. The same individual pushing his energies to their extreme, may, in a vast number of cases, keep up the pace and find no bad reaction."

Dr. Ira Wile says: "Unconditionally, there is no such thing as breakdown from overwork." And Dr. Allen P. Riggs: "Hard work, plenty of it, whether physical or mental, never in itself produced one single case of nervous exhaustion."

But I know a man who built up an enormous business by unremitting hard work. From the age of 25 to 65 he poured four men's energy and genius into it, and always felt like doing more. At 65 he retired. That was two years ago; he has been tired, as well as retired, ever since.

Questions And Answers L. E. H.: "How soon is it advisable for a person (a woman) to start doing heavy housework after an operation for hernia, also an obstruction in the intestines. I am 80 pounds overweight."

Answer—Obviously not for a long time. The hernial line of incision must heal so thoroughly that there is no danger of a recurrence. It is especially dangerous in people who are overweight. I would advise a six-month or one year waiting period after a bed rest period of a month following the operation.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 E. 45th st., New York. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet", "Indigestion and Constipation", "Reducing and Gaining", "Infant Feeding", "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes", "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin".

Legion Poppy Sale Set for Saturday

The American Legion auxiliary will sponsor its annual Poppy day sale on Saturday, Mrs. C. A. Bumbaugh president of the group, announced today.

In appealing to the public to buy and wear poppies, she pointed out that the sale of Poppies is promoted for the sole purpose of aiding in veterans' relief work.

The Poppies, Memorial flower of the Legion auxiliary, are made by these in the Soldiers and Sailors home at Sandusky, furnishing employment for these disabled men and providing them with a little spending money.

The Legion auxiliary's scholarship can share a percentage in the sale of the Poppies. It is through this fund that many boys and girls are able to attain college educations, Mrs. Bumbaugh explained.

Book And Leornians Club Hear Talk By Dr. O. L. Reid

"Augustus, the Greatest Dictator," biography of a dictator who gave the world 400 years of peace, written by John Buchanan, the late Lord Tweedsmuir, governor-general of Canada, was reviewed by Dr. O. L. Reid of Youngstown for Book and Leornians clubs at their annual guest night observance in the Christian church last night.

The events leading up to the rise of Octavius, great-nephew of Julius Caesar, and, later, his adopted son, were described by Dr. Reid in the same flowing style used by the author. With pointed references to present-day conditions and events, the reviewer told of the brilliant and unique career of the boy, who at 19 was made consul of Rome, 24 years before he was permitted by law to hold that position.

For the People
Declaring that Octavius, with his ideas which often are considered, when voiced by present-day statesmen, as "progressive," saved the world from disintegration by the system of government he instituted, Dr. Reid pointed out that Octavius,

ATTEND ANNUAL K. OF C. CONCLAVE

3 Salem Members Return from State Convention; All Present Officers Re-elected

District Deputy Robert Tubbs, John Entringer and Robert Bloor, delegates, have returned from Columbus where they attended the annual state convention of the Knights of Columbus Sunday and Monday.

The convention business session featured the re-election, for their second terms, of all present state officers, who are: Deputy, John D. King of Bellefontaine; secretary, James P. Lavey of Milan; treasurer, William M. Corry of Alliance; advocate, John C. Cochran of Toledo; warden, Arthur F. Palardy of Coshocton; chaplain, Rt. Rev. R. J. Sherry, J. C. D., of Cincinnati.

Six delegates were named to attend the national convention in August at Indianapolis, together with state deputy, chaplain and convention chairman, T. G. Andrews of Marion. Delegates are George O'Brien and T. J. Duffy of Columbus, Ed. McHugh of Cleveland, Glen Trener of Urbana, Vic Paul of Cuyahoga Falls and H. McNeerney of Cincinnati.

District deputies for the various sections of the state will be appointed late in June, to take office the first of July.

A field mass Sunday, with the Cincinnati bishop as celebrant, was attended by 1200 convention delegates at the Harding stadium.

Next year's state convention will be held in Youngstown.

ACTION LOOMS IN COAL FRAUD

City Government Loses $130,000 in Six Years on Coal Purchases, Investigation Reveals

CLEVELAND, May 21.—County Prosecutor Frank T. Cullitan today studied a state examiner's report showing the city government was milked of more than $130,000 on coal purchases over a six-year period.

Cullitan, scanning the report as a basis for possible grand jury action, will seek to determine if evidence justifies seeking indictments.

The 1,100-page report covers a two-year investigation by Examiner Stephen A. Ryan and reputedly prompted by a coal dealer's offer of a campaign contribution to a Cleveland official.

Ryan made findings against 11 coal companies accused of overcharging the city $745,480.80. The report said other overpayments approximating $60,000 undoubtedly were made to certain coal vendors, but that records of these either have been "destroyed or hidden."

Ten of the companies accused of making overcharges have paid back a total of $68,824.32, the report said.

John L. Abbott, who resigned as city combustion engineer two years ago, confessed accepting $19,239.28 from officials of the 11 companies to falsify reports on the quality of coal sold the city, Ryan reported.

Mayor Harold H. Burton forced Abbott's resignation.

Columbiana Awaits Dial System; To Be Ready Within Year

COLUMBIANA, May 21.—Adam Smith, Salem, Bell Telephone plant manager, gave an interesting talk Monday evening at the meeting of the Columbiana Rotary club at Valley Golf club, speaking on "The Development of the Cable".

He showed samples of the various types of cable, the use of which started about 1890.

Smith stated that the dial system will be ready for use in Columbiana in less than a year and that the contract for the erection of the new local phone building will be let next month.

Cable for the new system is already being placed between Salem and Columbiana. There are 808 telephone wires now entering Columbiana, Smith said.

Glenn Russell, Jersey City, N. J. Rotarian, with a perfect attendance record for 12 years, was a visitor at the meeting. President Elmer Detweiler announced that the Columbiana club was in third place in the district in attendance for April with 92 per cent. Next week's program will be in charge of John Ryan, Jr.

Grace Reformed Sunday school voted Sunday to hold a picnic June 19 at Firestone park. The affair will be in charge of the Board of Christian Education and committees will be appointed to arrange the supper and a program of sports and entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Esterly are returning tonight from a motor trip to Detroit.

Seniors of Columbiana High school were guests of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company Monday on the annual visit to the plant at Akron, a custom started a number of years ago by the late Harvey S. Firestone, a graduate of the local school. A lunch and a trip through the plant were enjoyable features.

JACK DEMPSEY, WIFE, SEPARATE

"Incompatibility" Cited As Reason for Break-Up; Divorce Is Not Mentioned

NEW YORK, May 21.—After seven years of married life, Jack Dempsey and his wife, the former Hannah Williams, have agreed to a parting of ways.

The romance, often called one of Broadway's happiest, was terminated officially yesterday with a formal announcement of separation by Attorney Moses Polakoff, who gave "incompatibility" as the reason for the break-up.

There was no mention of a divorce. Miss Williams, one time musical comedy star, is anxious to go back to the stage.

The Dempseys have two children—Joan, 5, and Barbara, 3. Polakoff said affairs were being adjusted "amicably."

Both principals have been married three times.

ITALY SPEEDS UP MOVEMENTS

Orders Air Raid Drills, Blackouts; Mussolini Orders Awaited

(By Associated Press)

ROME, May 21.—Italy, Germany's non-belligerent ally, appeared today to be preparing to enter the war as she ordered blackouts and air raid drills in her chief industrial areas for a three-day test beginning tonight.

Speeches of Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano in Milan and Cremona, in which he said that Italy awaits only "the order of the day" from Premier Mussolini "when he will have decided upon it," increased the feeling among Italians that they might be called shortly to fight.

Diplomatic circles attached significance to an article by Giovanni Ansaldo, editor of Count Ciano's newspaper Il Telegrafo, asserting "the hour is near when our influence on the course of events must be more active."

"Too Late Now"

He declared that, although Britain and France undoubtedly would react differently now to Italian territorial claims than they did 18 months ago, it would be "too late."

Telephone connections between Rome and London, meanwhile, remained suspended.

The possibility of Italy's entrance into the conflict in the immediate future was indicated further by the air raid drills, which were the first ordered since the opening days of the war last September.

Demonstrations continued against Britain and France which brought out troops and carabinieri. A shouting group of young Italians marched toward the British consulate, but was held back by helmeted soldiers who appeared suddenly.

Whether an Italian move might come on the French frontier or on the eastern borders facing the Balkans, should Italy join Germany, was a secret.

Nothing developed to indicate whether general mobilization was imminent, but military experts said that the closing of schools on May 31, two weeks earlier than usual, would make buildings available for temporary barracks if needed.

Carnivals Banned

ALLEN, BROWN "MIBS" CHAMPS

McKinley And Fourth St. Schools Complete Their Finals

Jimmy Haslip of the first grade, John Gilbert of the third grade, Tony Viola and Eugene Steves of the fifth grade and Duane Yeagley of the sixth grade.

Another Playoff Necessary

A playoff was also necessary to determine a champion at Fourth Street school when round-robin competition between nine room champions ended in a four-way tie. Bobby Brown of the fifth grade, Andrew Fox of the sixth grade, Billy Brown of the third grade and John Schafer of the fourth grade compiled like records of six wins and two defeats in round-robin play to force the finals into a playoff.

Bobby Brown won the playoff between the four boys, defeating his brother, Billy, 7-0; Fox, 7-1; and Schafer, 7-4.

In addition to the four boys who fought it out in the playoff, other finalists who fired away in the Fourth Street finals were Billy Smith of the first grade, Richard Sekeley and Joseph Lippitt of the second grade, Henry Miller of the third grade and Melvin Taylor of the fourth grade.

Brown's victory gave him the Fourth Street school championship for the second time. He won the title in 1938, but lost it last year to Dale Schafer, who went on to win the city championship. Schafer was not required to compete in the Fourth Street school eliminations this year because his ranking as city champion automatically qualified him for the city finals.

Competition of finals at McKinley and Fourth Street schools left only two schools, Reilly and Junior High, with their tournaments unfinished. The Reilly school finals are expected to be conducted tomorrow, while the Junior High championship will be decided later this week.

When all school champions have been named, the city finals will be run off at Reilly stadium.

Recover Body

O. K. Swim Pool

EAST ALEXANDRIA, May 21.—The Akron district WPA today approved plans for a $100,000 municipal swimming pool here. The city has voted a $22,000 bond issue to pay its share of the cost.

Theater Attractions

Merle Oberon and George Brent are starred in "Til We Meet Again", poignant love story in which fate is the villain, which shows at the State Wednesday and Thursday.

Pat O'Brien, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Binnie Barnes, Frank McHugh, Eric Blore, Henry O'Neill, Marjorie Gatenon and Regis Toomey are seen in supporting roles in the film, which is a remake of an early Kay Francis-William Powell hit.

Considerably better in many ways than its predecessor, the tragic story concerns a girl suffering from a heart ailment which may take her life at any moment and a convicted murderer being returned to America for execution. They meet in China, travel to this country on the same ship, each hiding the secret from the other. When his chance for escape threatens her life, he chooses to remain with her for the few short hours they may have together.

Concluding tonight at the State is the dramatic love story, "Waterloo Bridge", starring Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor, with Virginia Field and Lucile Watson.

"Black Friday" with Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Stanley Ridges, Anne Nagel, Anne Gwynne and James Craig, a tale of murder unknowningly started by a famous surgeon who transplants part of a criminal's brain into the brain of a quiet little college professor; and "Grandpa Goes to Town" with James, Lucile, and Russell Gleason, Henry Davenport and Maxie Rosenbloom, in a new Higgins family adventure.

Big Shovel Falls Into Mine Shaft

LISBON, May 21.—Workmen were endeavoring today to raise a 30-ton power shovel which fell into an abandoned mine shaft on the Jonas Murray farm, near Guilford lake.

The shovel was being used in coal stripping operations on the farm and practically disappeared from sight when the hidden mine shaft collapsed beneath the weight of the machine. John Sell, who was operating the shovel at the time, was uninjured.

Solution At Last

SAPULPA, Okla.—After two weeks of deadlock, Sapulpa has a mayor, police judge and city manager.

The city commission had been voting 5-5 on the posts. Then E. P. Mathis resigned and J. A. Cargill was appointed to his place. By 6-4 vote, the commission named Otis Humes Mayor, Warren Brown police judge and Fred Boone city manager.

BULKLEY WILL ATTEND HEARING

Former Senator To Appear In Hearing For M. J. Kirwan, Accused of Selling Postmasterships

YOUNGSTOWN, May 21.—Robert J. Bulkley, former U. S. senator from Cleveland, will be subpoenaed to appear at a preliminary hearing Saturday for Rep. Michael J. Kirwan, who with two others is accused of attempting to "sell" postmasterships in Ohio's 19th district.

Noah Yancy, constable in the court of Dallas Rogers, Trumbull county justice of the peace, said subpoenas would be served on Bulkley, nine postmasters and Carl W. Armstrong, former Youngstown postmaster.

The affidavits were filed recently by Thomas McCabe, Jr., of Youngstown and named Postmaster Harry Dixon of Warren and Edwin H. Gensler, Kirwan's campaign manager, as co-conspirators. McCabe accused Kirwan of demanding $800 from Dixon in 1938 as a condition to recommendation for the Warren postmastership. The three defendants pleaded innocent last week.

Yancy said books and records of assessments or credits of the 19th district postmasters' association also are being called for.

Yancy said subpoenas would be served on these postmasters: Alvin W. Craver, Youngstown; George E. Calhoun, Geneva; J. McClure, Ashtabula; John Paul, Conneaut; Amos Nye, Orwell; Robert C. Boylan, Struthers; Lois Black Wick, McDonald; L. D. Whitwood, Jefferson, and Walter Cole, Andover.

Salem Woman, With English Kin, Watches Nazi Progress

Probably no one in Salem is more concerned over the possibility of a German attack on England, as the Nazi forces drive toward the English channel ports, than Mrs. Jack Hicks of 726 E. Fifth st.

Her parents and two brothers are in England now.

Mrs. Hicks, known as Gladys to persons visiting Culberson's confectionary where she is employed, wishes she could turn back the pages of time to three years ago when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Westcott, were here visiting.

May Release Youth

BELLEFONTAINE, May 21.—Common Pleas court has under advisement today a motion for release on bond of 18-year-old Merlin Jenkins, indicted in the slaying of his father, Fred, 51, at Huntsville last Feb. 1.

The youth yesterday admitted disposing of evidence—a day bed—but asserted he was skating at Indian lake the night of the killing. Indicted and held in jail with him are his mother, Minnie, 47, and a friend, Donald Slater, 18.

FREMONT, May 21.—While playing in the yard at his home, two-year-old Larry Dalton of nearby Vickery fell into a cismern and was drowned.

SALEM GOLF CLUB OPENS 1940 SEASON SUNDAY

9-HOLE COURSE SET FOR START OF NEW SEASON

Greens And Fairways At Salem Club Are Reported In Shape

Prepared for one of its biggest seasons in recent years, the Salem Golf Club will open its summer tournament schedule with two events Sunday.

The opening program includes a blind handicap tournament and the start of qualifying rounds in the C. C. Gibson Memorial tournament, first of three major competitive events.

Officials of the club, encouraged by an unusual amount of early season interest, are looking forward to a highly successful year.

"Early Birds" Out

Despite the fact that tournament competition is not as yet under way, the nine-hole course has been getting a steady play for several weeks. A few of the "early birds" who annually begin swinging clubs at the first sign of spring weather, have been touring the course regularly for more than a month, while still other members have been getting in frequent practice rounds.

The greens and fairways, groomed daily since early spring by Greenskeeper Bob Furr and his assistants, are reported to be in excellent shape. The Salem course has long been noted for the excellence of its fairways, which again this year are in faultless condition.

Several improvements have been made in the nine-hole layout, including the construction of a watering system for all tees and the placing of new sand in a number of traps.

A new part-time professional has been signed for the 1940 season. He is Sammy Wilson, assistant pro at the Youngstown Country Club, who succeeds Jack Miskell of the Poland Country Club as part-time pro for the Salem course.

Wilson, who has been at Youngstown C. C. for four years as assistant to the veteran Albert Alcroft, will be at the Salem club on Wednesdays and Fridays throughout the season, starting tomorrow. Golfers interested in receiving instruction may contact either Wilson or club officials.

Tournament listed

A schedule of men's tournaments, announced today by N. I. Walken, chairman of the men's golf committee, includes competitive events for every Sunday and holiday in addition to the three big tournaments.

A number of women's tournaments are planned, but dates for these have not been announced.

The three major tournaments, in the order in which they are played, are the C. C. Gibson Memorial, the President's Cup and the Club championship tournament. The first two named are handicap events, while the Club Championship tournament is a non-handicap affair.

Members of the men's golf committee who drew up the schedule are N. I. Walken, chairman; J. M. Kelley, vice chairman; Dr. F. R. Crowder, Dr. R. T. Holzbach, James W. Farrell, Robert L. Wright and Richard Strain.

The tournament schedule for May and June follows:

Sunday, May 26—Blind handicap tournament and start of 18-hole qualifying rounds for C. C. Gibson Memorial tournament, medal play, with lowest 32 golfers qualifying for match play under three-fourths handicap.

Tuesday, May 30 (Memorial Day)—Flag tournament.

Sunday, June 2—18-hole match play against par tournament.

Sunday, June 9—Handicap medal play, nine selected holes.

Sunday, June 16—Foursome medal handicap tournament.

Sunday, June 23—18-hole best ball handicap tournament.

Sunday, June 30—18-hole medal play tournament, full handicap, and start of qualifying rounds for President's Cup tournament.

Tournaments for July, August and September will be announced at a later date.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, May 21.—Banks McFadden, Clemson's great football, basketball and track star, has changed his mind and will play pro football with the Brooklyn Dodgers. . . . Conde Mack had to cough up an $8,000 bonus—one of the largest ever paid a college—to get Porter Vaughan, Richmond university's sensational southpaw, on the line. . . . Bill McKechnie was one of the main spell-binders at the Bos'on Boys' club convention over the weekend.

Today's Guest Star

Art Cohn, Oakland Tribune: "Belle Martell of Los Angeles, the only licensed woman referee in the world, made her debut at Pasadena last week. . . . Gross receipts of the show totaled $117. . . . Offhand, I would say the gal lacked oomph."

A bunch of Brooklyn political barons were riding high, wide and handsome of Cuydon, the 42-1 shot that trimmed Bimelech and friends Saturday. . . . Bill Terry's salary as manager of the Giants is several grand higher than the president and secretary-treasurer of the club drawdown. . . . Galento's new managers say if he is causing 'em a lot of grief they haven't heard about it. All right, skip it.

Good Night

Down in the Florida East Coast league the other night the Palm Beach-Fox Lauderdale game was called on the stroke of midnight, in the 12th inning with the teams tied up at 12-12. . . . between 'em they made 12 errors.

Sam Snead made more dough last year than Joe Di Maggio—$35,000. . . . Jack Kearns is negotiating to come back to the big town as sports director of a new upturn arena where boxing will be included. . . . The Yanks insist it's Cleveland they have to beat—not Boston.

Good Grief!

In a recent Cardinal-Philly game, Coach Honus Lobert was riding one of the young St. Louis pitchers. . . . Ray Blades complained to the ump and asked the riding be stopped. . . . "Think of the old gas house gang hollering about a little thing like that," sniffed Lobert.

QUAKER NETMEN DEFEAT SEBRING

Even Series With Rivals By Gaining Six Victories

Avengeing a previous defeat Salem High's tennis team came back to defeat Sebring, 6-1, on the Centennial Park courts Monday.

The Salem team hung up five victories in the singles and split two doubles matches for the only defeat.

Capt. Lee Willman, Bob Ritchie, George Baillie, Carl Capel and Gale Stewart won in the singles. Willman and Baillie added another win in the doubles while Capel and Ritchie were defeated.

The Quakers have won three matches and lost three this year.

Singles

Willman defeated Coffman, 6-4, 6-2; Ritchie defeated Haberland, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3; Baillie defeated Campbell, 6-3, 6-3; Capel defeated Harris, 6-3, 6-2; Stewart defeated Pollack, 6-3, 6-2.

Doubles

Willman-Baillie defeated Haberland-Campbell, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4; Harris-Coffman defeated Capel-Ritchie, 9-7, 6-2.

Red Birds Improve With New Players

(By Associated Press)

The replacements sent down by the St. Louis Cards are beginning to show results in the improved play of the Columbus Red Birds in the American association race.

The Cards shipped 26-year-old Harry Brecheen to the Birds a few days ago. Last night he southpawed Columbus to a 7 to 3 victory over Louisville. The victory hoisted the Birds out of a tie for the cellar into sixth place and left them only a game behind the Colonels.

Indianapolis advanced into a third-place tie with Milwaukee, only two games back of second-place Minneapolis, by outlasting Toledo in a slugfest, 12 to 8.

The four eastern teams are idle today while the four western clubs play among themselves.

Columbiana Has Two Meets On Schedule

COLUMBIANA, May 21.—While the 1939-40 school term will come to a close this week, two meets still remain on the schedule of Columbiana High school's track and field team.

Seven Columbiana athletes will participate in the state meet at Columbus Friday and Saturday, after qualifying in the Class B district meet at Poland last Saturday. They are Bill Dewalt in the high hurdles, high jump and broad jump; Glecker in the high and low hurdles; Faulk in the low hurdles and the four-man 880-yard relay team.

Following the state meet, Columbiana athletes will vie in the annual Columbiana county meet at East Palestine Wednesday night, May 29.

MAJOR LEAGUE HEAVY HITTERS SLAP 20 HOMERS

Higgins Of Tigers Leads Parade With Three Circuit Clouts

Home run hitting being what it is today, a fellow just about has to collect them in clusters to get any notice.

There were 20 round trip tickets punched in the major leagues yesterday and the same number the day before, so you can see why most of them get lost in the shuffle.

But you can't overlook three in one game, which is the little stunt Pinky Higgins of the Detroit Tigers showed the Boston Red Sox in beating the American League leaders 10-7.

The trio of homers came on consecutive times at the bat and brought in four other runners.

Rowe Is Winner

The victory was credited to Schoolboy Rowe, who went to the mound in the fifth after Jimmy Fox had hit his tenth home run of the season with the bases loaded off Tommy Bridges. Lefty Grove got his for 1940 in this game, but later was knocked out.

Jeff Heath of the Cleveland Indians, who hit two home runs in one game last Friday, hit two again yesterday as the Tribe trimmed the New York Yankees for the second straight time 10-2.

Another home run bombardment originated from an unexpected quarter, the Philadelphia Athletics, as they stopped the St. Louis Browns, 8-4. Frank Hayes put together two of the game's five homers in the course of helping Chubby Dean to his fourth victory against one defeat.

The only game without a home run was the Chicago White Sox 3-4 triumph over the Washington Senators, the Sox's first victory in Chicago this season.

The Cincinnati Reds were crushed 13-4 by the Boston Bees, six of the runs coming on homers by Al Lopez and Carvel Rowell.

Dodgers Lose Chance

The Brooklyn Dodgers lost another chance to take advantage of Cincinnati's plight by dropping a 6-4 decision to the Chicago Cubs. All the Dodger runs were crowded into the sixth inning when they batted Bill Lee off the mound.

The Pittsburgh Pirates lost another heart-breaker 8-7 to the Philadelphia Phillies. The Pirates were leading 7-1 going into the ninth, the only run against Mace Brown being a homer by Chuck Klein. Then Brown developed a sore arm and three other Pittsburgh pitchers squandered the lead. Dick Lanan finally forced the winning run across with a walk.

Cliff Melton, the New York Giants' seasoned southpaw, shut out the St. Louis Cardinals 6-0 on six hits. Harry Danning accounted for five of the runs on a two-run homer and a triple with the bases loaded while Mel Ott's solo homer scored the other.

Freshmen Softball Teams Vie In Game

Led by Hrvin, who pointed out two hits, Room 305 defeated Room 303 in a tight softball game, 5-4, on the Eighth st. field last night.

The teams were composed of members of freshman home rooms in Salem High school.

Fight Results

SALT LAKE CITY—Tiger Jack Fox, 182, Spokane, Wash., outpointed Al Delaney, 187, Detroit (10).

INDIANS' SEARCH FOR SOUTHPAWS APPEARS ENDED

Two Lefthanders Stand Atop American League

CLEVELAND, May 21.—The Indians' quest for good southpaw pitching is over.

Two of their portersiders stand atop the American league, Al Milnar with four consecutive victories and Al Smith with three. In addition Harry Eisenstat has turned in some good relief jobs.

Smith notched his third yesterday by turning back the once-nighly New York Yankees, 10 to 2, as he allowed three scattered hits. Milnar was to seek his fifth decision today, with another lefty, Marvin Russo, due for the world champions.

Jeff Heath blasted his sixth and seventh home runs of the season to lead a 17-hit barrage against three Yankees pitchers—Spud Chandler, Bump Hadley and Atley Donald. Smith allowed only one hit up to the ninth when Bill Dickey doubled home the two runs.

Heath opened scoring in the fourth with his first homer. The Tribal bats boomed out five runs the next inning on Lou Boudreau's triple, singles by Roy Weatherly and Ben Chapman, doubles by Ken Keltner and Smith, two walks and a passed ball.

Cleveland added three runs in the sixth on singles by Chapman and Keltner. Rolfe Hemsley's double, a walk, a wild pitch and an error. Heath's second circuit smash in the eighth boosted the Tribal total to 10.

Cleveland's 17 hits show the weakness of Yankee pitching. Afield the champions were charged with only one error—Dickey's wild throw to third in the sixth. But they had plenty of physical and mental lapses that didn't get in the box score.

Boudreau got credit for a triple in the seventh as the usually dependable DiMaggio misjudged his drive. After the ball got by him, DiMaggio made no effort to retrieve it and Mills finally dashed over from left field to throw the ball to third.

to underwrite them up to that amount, leaving the banks to carry the other 25 per cent.

Simultaneously, there were signs that the administration was reconsidering its decision to defer the question of financing until the next session of congress. Indications were that Congress soon might receive a request to increase the $45,000,000 federal debt limit—possibly by $1,000,000,000. The debt now is approaching $43,000,000,000.

The alternative of new taxes at the present session was largely discounted because of the desire for adjournment in advance of the national political conventions.

Bridge Approved By Commissioners

LISBON, May 21.—The county commissioners Monday adopted a resolution cooperating with the state highway department in the construction of a concrete bridge over Riley's run on S. State road 377, the Salineville-Carrollton road, just south of the Salineville village limits.

The structure is to be built at an estimated cost of $13,000, with the county participating to the extent of $2,000.

The commissioners also approved turning over a new section of highway which was constructed from the Pennsylvania underpass and Route 558 into East Palestine, to the state highway department.

As a result, Route 558 now intersects Route 14 at East Palestine, after leaving the same route in Salem and passing through Franklin Square and East Fairfield.

himself with glory during the Polish campaign by a practical illustration of how these tactics can be applied.

With Von Reichenau's army on the right wing apparently heading in the direction of the French and Belgian coastal points and with the left wing gradually moving southward, Hitler could afford to let the center take care of itself, as indicated in yesterday's high command communique.

Paris will fall into his lap, he feels, like a ripe apple from a tree if Von Reichenau can intercept the Allied forces heading for the coast. Besides, Hitler is not nearly as much interested in Paris as in London.

One must not forget that Hitler regards the present war primarily as a fight with the British empire. Months of incessant propaganda have inculcated this idea also in the minds of the German people.

Here, among army people, one constantly hears this phrase uttered with decided advance satisfaction: "Not since 1066 has England had an enemy on her shores. Hitler will continue where the Normans left off."

This may be wishful thinking but there is no doubt that a spirit of supreme confidence pervades the army as it pours reserve after reserve into gaps opened in the French and Belgian defenses.
